DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 12/19/2005 is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-4, 6-12, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mitsubishi (JP 2000-292861) hereafter Mitsubishi.

'861 discloses the limitations therein including the following:

Regarding claims 1 and 7 Mitsubishi discloses a resin optical component made of resin having a high transmittance with respect to light in a required wavelength band (fig. 1, par. [0007]-[0011]), comprising: resin portions which are discolored by energy in an absorption wavelength band of the resin (fig. 1, par. [0007]-[0010]), wherein the discolored resin portion constitutes a high light absorptance portion (fig. 1, par. [0007]-[0010]).

Regarding claims 2 and 10 Mitsubishi discloses a resin optical component according to claim 1, wherein the resin optical component is a resin lens consisting of a spherical or aspherical convex micro lens (fig. 1), and the high light absorptance portion is formed in the resin outside an area for transmitting the light and constitutes a light-shielding wall for interrupting a stray light (fig. 1, par. [0007]-[0008]).

Regarding claims 3 and 11 Mitsubishi discloses a resin optical component according to claim 1, wherein the resin optical component is a resin lens array plate comprising a plurality of spherical or aspherical convex micro lenses which are arrayed at a predetermined pitch (fig. 1), and the high light absorptance portion is formed in the resin among neighbored convex micro lenses and constitutes a light-shielding wall for interrupting a stray light (fig. 1, par. [0007]-[0008]).

Regarding claims 4 and 12 Mitsubishi discloses a resin optical component according to claim 1, wherein the resin optical component is a resin lens array plate comprising a plurality of spherical or aspherical convex micro lenses which are arrayed at a predetermined pitch (fig. 1), and the high light absorptance portion is formed in the resin among the respective peripheries of neighbored convex micro lenses and constitutes a light-shielding wall for interrupting a stray light (fig. 1 "3" as the "light-shielding wall").

Regarding claims 6 and 14 Mitsubishi discloses a resin optical component according to any one of claims 1-4, wherein the resin is a cycloolefin-based resin, olefin-based resin, or norbornene-based resin (par. [0011]).

Regarding claim 8 Mitsubishi discloses a method for manufacturing a resin optical component according to claim 7, wherein the energy is light or radiation (par. [0011]).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5 and 13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: with respect to the allowable claims, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103. Specifically, in reference to claims 5 and 13, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed resin optical component and method for manufacturing a resin optical component specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations the claimed "light-shielding wall is formed one-third or more the thickness of the resin lens array plate in a thickness direction thereof".
